

Bradford Pineault

Vice President, Sector Consultant
Fidelity Investments

Bradford Pineault is a vice president and sector consultant at Fidelity Institutional Asset ManagementSM (FIAMSM), Fidelity Investments' distribution and client service organization dedicated to meeting the needs of consultants and institutional investors, such as defined benefit and defined contribution plans, endowments, and financial advisors.

In this role, Mr. Pineault is responsible for collaborating with field wholesalers and Fidelity's relationship management team to identify large-sector investment producers, engage in sales interactions, and provide ongoing support to drive sector flows. Additionally, he is responsible for providing actionable insight and comprehensive information on sector investments, mutual funds, packaged products, and exchange traded funds (ETFs) to advisors and their clients.

Prior to assuming his current position in January 2014, Mr. Pineault held various other roles within Fidelity, including regional vice president, regional investment consultant, and financial planning representative. He has been in the investments industry since joining Fidelity in 1998.

Mr. Pineault earned his bachelor of science degree in finance from the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth and his master of business administration degree in management from Bryant University. He is also a CFA[®] charterholder, a Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA[®]), and a member of the Boston Securities Analyst Society (BSAS). Additionally, Mr. Pineault holds the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Series 6, 7, and 63 licenses.
