

MARGARET J. HURLEY

Margaret J. Hurley serves as the Chief of the Attorney General's Central Massachusetts Division located in Worcester. Ms Hurley is also the Director of the Attorney General's Municipal Law Unit, which is charged with review and approval of all town bylaws and all municipal charters.

Before joining the Attorney General's Office, Ms. Hurley worked in private practice with the firms of Morrison, Mahoney & Miller in Boston, and Mirick, O'Connell in Worcester. While in private practice, Ms. Hurley represented various cities and towns as Special Litigation Counsel and Acting Town Counsel, and defended numerous medical malpractice and other civil cases through trial.

Ms. Hurley currently serves on the Executive Committee of the City Solicitor and Town Counsel Association and is a Past-President of the Worcester County Bar Association. Ms. Hurley is a former Co-Chair of the Public Law Section Council of the Massachusetts Bar Association. She is a Fellow of the Massachusetts Bar Foundation and a Hearing Committee Member of the Board of Bar Overseers. Ms. Hurley is a graduate of Boston College and Boston College Law School. She is a resident of Grafton, where she has served on the Planning Board and Town Administrator Screening Committee.